

"Hand Tailored" Means Much When Buying Clothes

IT means that you are getting clothes as carefully constructed as it is possible for a skilled workman to make them. That no matter how long you wear it, the coat will be as shapely as when you first put it on. That the same care is exercised in cutting as though the garment was made to your special order. The Kuppenheimer and the Hart, Schaffner & Marx makes are guaranteed hand-tailored—the same work and finish that would cost almost double the price at your tailors.

The two and three-piece suits for summer are shown in a wonderfully complete range of styles for men of every age and occupation. Excellent hand-tailored suits for $20.00; better ones as high as $40.00. Young men's suits as low as $15.00; as high as $35.00.

The "Popular's" prices are unquestionably the lowest—the unvariable policy of this store in the past, the present and the future.

Hawes von Gal $3 Hats

We are exclusive El Paso agents for the famous Hawes von Gal $3.00 Hats. Most perfect styles are shown in both soft and stiff. Hardly necessary to pay more.

New Straws--

A style for every man, young or old. New summer styles are shown in great variety. Straw Hats from $1.00 to $3.00; Panama Hats from $5.00 to $10.00

"Columbia" Dollar Shirts

Our claim that this is the best dollar shirt made is substantiated by the splendid line of styles we show. Both plain and pleated negligee shirts for summer, in neat light color materials, each. $1.00

Men's $1 Underwear 79c
Lisle thread Undershirts and Drawers, extra quality, finely finished, in white and ecru. All sizes in the regular dollar quality, special. 79c

HARBUCK HUSKIES IMPROVING PLAY

Weak Places Strengthened For Games Here With the Demons.

Harbuck's huskies are producing some real, genuine, honest, I'm a ball player team work. At practice out on the Washington park diamond yesterday they showed it.

The organization displayed in the Cananea games is being improved, the weak places patched, and a fine clock working whole completed. By the time Douglas or any other team comes along there will be some lively doings for El Paso fandom to gaze upon.

Since Cananea is considered the strongest enemy for the 1910 season, there is little fear of El Paso reaping a harvest of laurel wreaths. Of course, every year every team claims everything. But this year is really of bright prospect, honest it is!

"The first two games were all right," said big chief Harbuck himself. "Of course, I played to win, and would have gloried in cleaning up at both games. Yet, perhaps, it is better that honors were divided to open the season. I am quite satisfied with our showing, and feel sure—cut then every club manager says that, so what's the use?"

Since Cananea is considered the most dangerous opponent for El Paso in the Cactus League, El Paso fans themselves may draw their own conclusions just as well as manager or authority. The El Paso club is stronger than last year, perhaps stronger than last year, you don't believe it, ask Gutierrez.

According to southern reports about the Highlanders, Chase, Gardner and Knight are infield fixtures, while Hemphill, Engle and Wolters appear to be the outfield selections.

SPORTLETS.

There will be no more fistie encounters in the federal district of Mexico, according to a decision of governor Llanos.

Chester Nourse, once pitcher for Boston college and later the Boston Americans, has been released to the Sacramento club by manager Donovan of the Boston club.

News that baseball will be a regular sport at Wesley college is a fine coup for lovers of the national game. Willie Smith, a foremost professional golfer of Mexico, has departed from "the city" for Scotland. He will represent the Mexico Country club in the open golf championship of the S. Andrews links. Smith may come back in kilt.

Connie Mack of the Athletics, thinks he has solved the knotty outfield problem. Eddie Collins, Frank Baker and Harry Davis look good to him and they have been chosen to guard the suburbs.

Just like Jeffries, and other lesser fighters, Ad Wolgast is going to open a "place" in Cadillac, Mich., his home town. A friend is going to manage him. Ad is going to reap the cash. Cincinnati's utility infielder, Charles Agenbach, is down with typhoid fever.

The Brooklyn club has turned outfielder George Schrim back to the Buffalo club.

Wilbert Robinson, old Baltimore catcher says the Giants' youngsters are the best lot he ever saw.

First baseman Jake Daubert, the Memphis recruit, is now assured of retention by the Brooklyn club.

Knabe, Ward and Walsh are having a warm race for the position of second baseman for the Phillies.

Bob Becher, leading base runner of the National league last season, shows the same speed this year.

John Hummel is playing great ball and appears to have the Brooklyn second base job clinched.

Manager Griffith has notified president Herrmann that he has found a real "brenon" in pitcher Wingo Anderson.

Manager McGraw seems to have unearthed a spectacular infielder in Ernest Leach, the Connecticut youngster.

Josh Devore will in all probability start the season as guardian of the left pasture for the Giants. McGraw is sweet on Joshua.

St. Louis's recruit third baseman from the Carolina association, Frank Betcher, is making a good impression upon manager Bresnahan.

Captain Chase of the Highlanders is a victim of a mild case of "charley horse."

Infielders Neal Ball and Terry Turner of the Naps have been supplementing their spring baseball training by playing 36 holes of golf daily.

Artie Latham is the only rival of Edward Payson Weston and J. Pierpont Morgan for giving age the laugh. On his 50th birthday in Marlin the former great third baseman stole second and third.

BASEBALL WILL OPEN SEASON THURSDAY

The Historical Date of the Year, the American's Great Day.

WHERE THEY WILL PLAY ON THURSDAY.

National League.
New York at Boston.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
Pittsburgh at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
American League.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Boston at New York.

How many grandmothers will die Thursday? Even the greatest, the most accurate statisticians of the age dare not venture to express an opinion on this point, for, throughout the country, wherever the great American and National baseball leagues hold forth, there will be hundreds of them, for office boys innumerable will ask and get off for the afternoon, and the bosses, with knowing winks, will ask if the boys' grandmothers are dead, and naturally the answers will invariably be yes. And the boys will go to the ball games.

But the office boys are not the only ones, for the American men are nearly all grownup boys who cannot possibly forget the delectations of their barefoot days, when they were wont to gather in the corner lots and play rounders. They, too, will close their desks early and the cares of the day will for the nonce be forgotten while the great American public recreates itself at the baseball grounds of the nation.

Stars that have but begun to shine will grace the bases of the various diamonds, heroes greater than the ancient Roman gladiators, men whose work is appreciated in a financial way to a greater extent than the president of the nation, will hold forth, for Thursday is the day of days in this year of American history. It is the opening of the National and American league season of baseball.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," but baseball hath charms to civilize the savage to a greater extent, for sport, true, clean sport, is the greatest builder of a nation that

AFRAID JOHNSON WILL FLUKE ON THE FIGHT

Promoters Are Afraid the Negro Will Not Get Into Training.

Jack Johnson.

New York, N. Y., April 13.—They seem greatly worried about Jack Johnson. Jack Gleason is on a train bound for San Francisco, and John McKeon has departed from this city for Chicago. The New York agent has been instructed to accompany Johnson west, and to see that all goes well. This order is caused by Tex Rickard's uneasiness, it is said.

"There is no occasion for worry over Johnson," assured Gleason. "Rickard has only conducted one big fight, the Gans-Nelson battle at Goldfield, and he may be a trifle restless. Johnson has assured me that he will begin training near San Francisco before May 1, and I believe him."

Jeffries Spars.
Ben Lomond, Cal., April 12.—Jeffries slipped on the mat pads yesterday and sparred for the first time since the beginning of his training. According to everybody here he has returned to his old wallop, and appears not at all muscle bound or clumsy.

Three rounds with Sam Berger caused Sam to remember a sudden engagement. Jeff felt so good he almost pushed his trainer through the gymnasium wall.

Later Jeffries shadow boxed, wrestled with Farmer Burns and Bob Armstrong, and took a 10 mile run through the wilderness.

"I never felt better in my life," declared Jeff, and it must be so. The much talked of "first boxing bout" pulled off between Jeffries and Berger yesterday, seems to have pleased the big fellow's trainers owing to the excellent wind shown by Jeffries.

Jeffries himself wore a complacent smile after completing the bout, some rope skipping and bag punching. "I am in good condition for a fight right now," said Jeffries.

MIAMI, ARIZ., HAS TEAM THIS YEAR

Players Have All Been on Arizona and Texas Teams.

Miami is going to have a baseball team. The new town is safe for enterprising sportsmen. The first baseball year of its history. Miami is new, but there are lots of fans there, lots in comparison, of course.

All hail to Miami and her first team. It is all due to the cooperation of B. Britton Gottsberger, superintendent of the Miami Copper company, in excoing employees of the mine from their work to play schedule games; to the generosity of Cleve W. Van Dyke, of the copper company, in providing ground location, and to the financial support of the business men of Miami, combined with the persistent efforts of J. C. Efronson, Walter Nash and Joseph Chisholm, the baseball committee.

All of the players have played on Arizona and Texas teams. Here they are: Graham, Ragsdale, Williams, Trainum, Shirk, Quiliven, Thatcher, Robinson, F. Graham, Remus, Eastland, Doran.

PHOENIX FORMS CITY LEAGUE

Three Teams Organized and Are Ready to Start the Season.

Ready to play ball, the Phoenix Baseball league is organized and working out. The initial game will be held at Eastlake park, April 23, it is planned. Nine games will be played by the three teams in the league, once each week, weather permitting. Personnel of the teams and the schedule of games follows:

Capitol team—C. R. Craig, Robert A. Craig, J. E. Cleveland, Dr. E. S. Godfrey and Messrs. Hassel, Lohr, Fitch, Andrews, Ames, Higgins, Pearson, Gilett, Moore, Girard, Tracy, Keene and De Pass.

Phoenix National bank—Messrs. McClintock, McClintock, Schaepe, Crook, Thurmaster, Byers, Hoeker, Morse, Bernard, Thomas, Watt, Brazee, Garnett, Blair, Henney and Galloway.

Valley bank team—Messrs. L. B. Christy, G. C. Christy, Sargent, Sims, Ely, Jr., F. Almsworth, Reed, Battin, Roundtree, Butch, Hull, Fagan, Stewart, L. Thomas, Civile, Brooks, Herrett and Benner.

April 25—Phoenix vs. Capitol.
April 26—Phoenix vs. Valley.
May 7—Valley vs. Capitol.
May 14—Phoenix vs. Valley.
May 21—Phoenix vs. Valley.
May 28—Valley vs. Capitol.
June 4—Phoenix vs. Capitol.
June 11—Phoenix vs. Valley.
June 18—Capitol vs. Valley.

is anywhere recorded, and in all the world there is no sport, no national sport, to compare in the least with the great American game of baseball.

El Paso's eyes will turn toward Chicago, for the White Sox, after whom the El Paso team was originally named, will there cross bats with the St. Louis players, but that is not the interesting feature of the opening game in the Windy City. El Paso will be represented in Chicago by Comiskey and his men parading the grounds in the Mexican hats presented to them on their recent visit to this city.

Sporting editors and paragraphers will make note of those sombrero fans who talk about them, husbands will tell their wives and younger men their sweethearts, until the name of El Paso will be on the tongue of every Chicagoan, for every Chicagoan is a baseball fan.

At Washington, president Taft, a fan of fans, will wipe the perspiration from his brow as he sees the capital city team fight for the game with the Quaker city boys, and probably see them lose, for they nearly always do on the opening day.

Thursday, baseball will be king. From Atlantic to Pacific the wires will be kept hot with the story of the games played in the various cities on the two circuits.

Bingles and Bunts

By CAB

Art Woods is a statistical Sam when it comes to ball players' records. He knows them all.

The Cananea bunch play good ball, but they ought to cut out that hoarsh dope; it disorganizes a team.

Thomas, with the "dummy" Taylor smile, has a fadeaway ball that is harder to solve than the problem—"Why does a hen cross the road?"

Mackay is the boss of the field when he umpires.

Harley Keifer is in fast company this year, but he is still some speedy.

It will require a couple of weeks' time before it can be decided what man is to be dropped from the list of meal tickets.

"We can fix it" Krome knows all about baseball; he says so.

Because Hamilton flew over the diamond in his biplane is no sign that the El Paso ball tossers will ever go up in the air.

The new grandstand has not been filled yet, but it will be.

The bunch have had their pictures taken and now they can play like real professionals.

Lucky Gowans' bat is not much longer than a match, but it is big enough to knock out home runs.

Wylie has not had his annual head shave, but when he does, coaching will be the order of the day.

Fourteen years ago they thought they had a baseball team in El Paso; today they know they have.

THE EMPIRE.

Who is it, reckless of his fame
And deaf to yells of praise or blame,
Unmoved by glory or by shame,
Hands down decisions on the game?

Who calmly stands where spinning spheres,
Projected by the hand that steers
The low or high, curved, straight, or queers,
Whiz past his body, face and ears,
And calls them balls or strikes, while cheers
From grandstand throngs of bleachers?

Do not affect his hopes or fears?
His Ump.

Who faces thousands every day
Ranged round the grounds in fierce array,
All with a hot desire to slay
When he declares a quick, close play
Not in accordance with their way,
No matter what they want and say?

Who wears the diamond like a king?
Who has the players on the string?
Who carries pennants in a sling?
Who simply runs the whole darn thing?

His Ump.

—W. J. Lampton.

THINGS THE FANS SHOULD NOT MISS.

Don't fail to see what Haskins says about baseball today. It is on the editorial page. It is good food for the ball bugs. Benjamin and his ball pranks are on page 10 today.

LAST YEAR FAVORITES CONTINUE TO MAKE GOOD.

Manager Harbuck has received word that three last year El Paso players are more than making good with Streetport, La. Galloway on second, Lamar at third bag and Miller in the center outfields are favorites of Louisiana fans.
